A single mother and her son struggle in a Mississippi town. An act of violence thrusts them into the world of an emotionally devastated store owner, awakening the fury of a bitter and long-standing conflict. With the boy's future hanging in the balance, the two adults must reckon with the past while searching for a new way forward. BALLAST led the 18th Annual Gotham Independent Film Award nominations with four nods: Best Feature, Ensemble Performance and Breakthrough Director and Actor.
